Sir,

69573

I, the undersigned, Shazadibi holder of State Pension Order No. 131 most respectfully beg of your honour to bring my humble request to your kind consideration.

My Grand father Myjodin Khan was getting Rs. 10/- pension After his death the pension was reduced to Rs.7/- and distributed among his first daughter Gaffur Bi Rs. 4/- from 19-1-1909 and the second daughter Yasumbi Rs. 3/- from 1-6-1911.

On my mother's (Yasumbi, 2nd daughter) request her share amount of Rs. 3/- was sanctioned in my name by the Government.

Now as I have attained the majority and if I married and live with my husband it will be quite inconvenient to my mother Yasumbi to afford to live as she posseses no other means except this pension.

Therefore, I now request your honour not only transfer the pension order to my mother Yasumbi, but also increasing the pension amount from Rs. 3/- to Rs. 4/- from 19-1-1909 to up-to-date, and disburse the same to my mother.

I beg to remain, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

(sd) Shazadibi. رجوع شاہزادی بی

Sir,

I, the applicant respectfully beg of you to bring my humble prayer to your kind consideration:

My father, late Maijodin Khan was getting Rs. 10/- pension. After his death his first daughter Gaffur Bi and second daughter myself prayed the Government to divide the said pension equally between us.

The Government sanctioned reducing the said pension to Rs. 7/- and ordered to my elder sister Rs. 4/- and for myself Rs. 3/- .

On my prayer my share amount was sanctioned to my daughter Shazadibi on 1-6-1911. But my elder sister got her pension from 19-1-1909.

As I am an illiterate and ignorant woman I did not move the Governmant as to why the difference of Re 1/- less ordered to me that too from different periods.

Therefore I now beg of your honour to recommend to the Government and grant me the differences of pension which I am entitled from 19-6-1909 to up-to-date or at least to - 1-6-1911 at the rate of Re 4/- per month.

For which act of kindness I shall pray for your long life and prosperity.

I beg to remain, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

(Sd) Yasumbibi
